Members contacted these voters via mail in order to correct the inaccuracy or obtain information sufficient to inactivate or update the voter's record. ERIC also provided information on voters who appeared to be deceased based on official death data from the Social Security Administration. To increase access to voter registration information, ERIC provided members with information identifying potentially eligible but unregistered individuals. Members contacted potentially eligible individuals via a mailing that included instructions for how to best register to vote. 01. Footnote for uncertain tax position under FIN 48 (Part X)

The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under that guidance, ERIC may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of ERIC and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT).

01. Footnote for uncertain tax position under FIN 48 (Part X)

The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities at year end.

ERIC's policy would be to recognize interest and penalties, if any, on tax positions related to its unrecognized tax benefits in income tax expense in the financial statements. No interest and penalties were assessed or recorded during the year. ERIC's IRS Forms 990 that have been filed are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service, generally for three years after they were filed.

45-538968101. Organizational document changes (Part VI, line 4)

The Organization amended its bylaws to reduce the resignation period from 91 days to 21 days and modified provisions pertaining to the protection of ERIC reports, member data, third-party data, and ERIC information.

02. Governing body decisions (Part VI, line 7b)

All members of the Organization have a right but not the obligation to appoint a representative to the Board of Directors. This means a member may choose not to put a representative on the Board, and, as such, the size of the Board may or may not equal the size of the membership. Accordingly, the organization has a two-tiered governance model, meaning that some decisions are allocated to members and others to the Board of Directors. For example, the members and not the Board have the power to approve the dues schedule, and amend the bylaws, membership agreement, and certificate of incorporation.

03. Form 990 governing body review (Part VI, line 11)

The Form 990 was reviewed by the Executive Committee, Finance Committee, full Board of Directors, Executive Director, an outside accountant, and counsel.

04. Conflict of interest policy compliance (Part VI, line 12c)

The Organization's Conflict of Interest Policy ("Policy") requires all Covered Persons to assess for possible covered transactions on an ongoing basis and, if they become aware of a possible conflict, to promptly disclose it in accordance with the Policy. In addition, annually, Directors are required to complete a conflict-of-interest disclosure form. In accordance with the Policy, the Board, any committee thereof, and the Executive Director review disclosures of covered transactions to determine if they meet the standard for

05. CEO, executive director, top management comp (Part VI, line 15a)

To determine the Executive Director's compensation, the Executive Committee of the Board conducts a performance review of the Executive Director and, in consultation with the Finance Committee, reviews comparability data and information from similar organizations from IRS Form 990s; a comprehensive non-profit compensation report; and other benchmarking information. This decision is documented contemporaneously in writing. The full Board is apprised of the Executive Committee's review and determination and votes on the Organization's annual budget, including the Executive Director's compensation. The Executive Director, who is an ex officio, non-voting member of the Executive Committee and the Board recuses himself from all discussions relating to his compensation.

06. Other officer or key employee compensation (Part VI, line 15b)

The Organization does not have any other compensated officers or key employees. The Executive Director conducts an annual performance review of other employees and makes a compensation determination. This determination is presented to the full Board as part of its annual review and approval of Organization's budget.

07. Governing documents, etc, available to public (Part VI, line 19)

The Organization's governing documents (bylaws and membership agreement), Form 990s, audited financial statements, and conflict-of-interest policy are available on its website. Its Form 1023 is available upon request.
